(916) 654-0889

74-010A (Rev. 09/02)

I hereby apply for a Dairy Exemption Number based on the qualifications as set forth in the State of California Food and Agriculture Code, Division 9, Chapter 3, Section 16522.5. Said section states that a dairy exemption number shall be evidence of ownership of cull beef cows and bulls of a recognized dairy breed presented for sale at a registered or posted saleyard or licensed slaughter plant for immediate slaughter. Any person owning a dairy farm as defined in Section 32505 may apply to the Secretary for an exemption number. The Secretary may refuse to issue such number to persons convicted of violating a provision of the Food and Agriculture Code, or to persons convicted of theft.

The Dairy Exemption Number shall be written on the bill of consignment, defined in Section 21703, when the cattle and consignment slip are presented to an inspector at the registered or posted saleyard, or licensed slaughter plant. An exemption number shall be deemed to meet the identification information requirements of section 21703. The cows shall be consigned, owned, and sold in the name of the person having the exemption number.

The Secretary may revoke the Dairy Exemption Number of any person who violates any provision of the Food and Agricultural Code, or who is convicted of theft.

(A copy of Sections 21703 and 32505 referred to above, are printed on the reverse side of this form.)

Upon approval of this application, an exemption certificate will be sent to you for your records and display. The certificate will be valid for five years.

I hereby acknowledge that I have read the above information and am in compliance with the requirements as set forth in said Division 9, Chapter 3, Section 16522.5. I have included my $50.00 processing fee.

16522.5. A dairy exemption number shall be evidence of ownership of cull beef cows and bulls of a recognized dairy breed presented for sale at a registered or posted saleyard, or licensed slaughter plant for immediate slaughter. Any person owning a dairy farm as defined in Section 32505 may apply to the director for an exemption number. The director may refuse to issue such number to persons convicted of violating any provision of the Food and Agricultural Code, or to persons convicted of theft.

The dairy exemption number shall be written on the bill of consignment, defined in Section 21703, when the cattle and consignment slip are presented to an inspector at the registered or posted saleyard, or licensed slaughter plant. An exemption number shall be deemed to meet the identification information requirements of Section 21703. The cows shall be consigned, owned, and sold in the name of the person having the exemption number.

The director may revoke the dairy exemption number of any person who violates any provision of the Food and Agricultural Code, or who is convicted of theft.

21703. Except as provided in Section 21058, bills of sale or consignment required by any provision of Division 9 (commencing with Section 16301) or Division 10 (commencing with Section 20001) shall be made on the "Bill of Sale or Consignment" form approved by the director, and shall state all of the following information for animals sold or consigned:

- (a) The date of sale or consignment.
- (b) The loading point.
- (c) The name and address of the owner or the consignor, or both.
- (d) The destination.
- (e) The number and description of the animals including their brands, if any.
- (f) The name and address of the buyer or consignee, or both.
- (g) The name of the transporter or carrier and the license number of the vehicle used to transport the animals.
- (h) The signature of the owner or his authorized agent.

32505. "Dairy farm" means any place or premises upon which milk is produced for sale or other distribution and where more than two cows or six goats are in lactation.
